

Health Professions Council - 3 October 2007

Council membership of an external body

Executive summary and recommendations

Introduction

In December 2005 the Council agreed that Mr Pat McFadden (Registrant Paramedic Member) should be nominated to represent Council on the Joint Royal Colleges Ambulance Liaison Committee.

Mr McFadden left the Council in July 2007 and was replaced by Mr John Donaghy. The Joint Royal Colleges Ambulance Liaison Committee has been informed of this and has requested that the HPC nominate a replacement for Mr McFadden.

Mr Donaghy and Mr Woolcock (Alternate Paramedic Member) have agreed that Mr Woolcock should be considered for membership of this Committee. The President has considered Mr Woolcock's supporting statement and supports his nomination.

Decision

The Council is asked to agree that Mr M Woolcock should be nominated to represent Council on Joint Royal Colleges Ambulance Liaison Committee in place of Mr McFadden.

Background information

Council policy on council members' membership of external groups was agreed at the October 2004 Council Meeting and is available in the members' information pack and on the members' extranet and also from the Secretariat.
